

Senior Spotlight: Jordan Earl Norman

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 05 May 2011 14:48 - Last Updated Thursday, 21 July 2011 14:54

---

April 28, 2011 - Jordan Earl Norman is the 17-year-old son of Robert and Jane Norman. He is a member of Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and has attended Leonard schools 12 years. His activities include scouting, Beta Club six years, football four years, student government, basketball three years, golf one year, tennis three years and powder puff four years.

In Scouting, Jordan reached the Eagle Scout status and in student government he served as reporter.

Some of his favorite things are the following: food, Alfredo; drink, lemonade; color, blue; place, home; movie, Serenity; actor, Will Smith; actress, Mila Kunis; athlete, Jason Witten; team, Dallas Cowboys; song, Remember the Name by Fort Minor; persons, his brothers, Aaron and Chris and his sisters, Daniella and Summer; book, Book of Mormon and sport, football.

Jordan's favorite thing at LHS is being one grade behind his sister every year. His advice for underclassmen is "Don't do drugs because no one will like you."

In his free time he enjoys chilling with friends, sleeping and being awesome. If he could do anything, he would explore all caves. If he could change anything, he would have played football in junior high.

Senior Spotlight: Jordan Earl Norman

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 05 May 2011 14:48 - Last Updated Thursday, 21 July 2011 14:54

---

His pet peeve is ticking clocks and people talking when he's watching movies.

After graduation, Jordan plans to attend Grayson County College one year, then serve two years mission for his church then attend BYU in Idaho.