May 12, 2011 - Travis Dillon Damesworth is the 19-year-old son of Robert and Peggy Damesworth. He is a member of First Baptist Church of Leonard and has attended Leonard schools 13 years.

During his years in Leonard schools, he has been active in football three years, FCA, FFA show team and track.

Some of Travis' favorite things include the following: food, steak; drink, Dr. Pepper; color, green; place, home; movie, Pineapple Express; actor, Russell Crow; actress, Megan Fox; athlete, Ed Reed; team, Dallas Cowboys; song, What I Got; person(s), his parents; book, Bible and sport, football. His favorite thing/memory at LHS is hanging out with his friends.

His advice for underclassmen is "Enjoy it while it lasts." His favorite things to do in his free time are game calling and hunting. If he could do anything, he would be rich. If he could change anything, he would change our government. His pet peeve is whiners.

After graduation, Travis plans to attend college and become a fire technician and work with his family.
