

Daniel Davis Clubb

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 21 April 2011 14:36 -

April 14, 2011 - Funeral services for Daniel Davis Clubb, 79, were held Tuesday, April 12 at Bratcher Funeral Home Chapel in Denison with Charles Wrenn officiation. Burial was at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Hugo, Okla. at 2:30 p.m. He passed away Friday, April 8, 2011 at his home in Denison. Clubb was born March 11, 1932, in Alamogordo, N. M., the son of James D. Clubb and Dorothy F. Merchant. He was a brakeman for the U. P. Railroad.

He is survived by son, Steve Clubb and wife Suzanne of Euless; daughters, Rhonda Citty and husband Keith of Denison and Robin Whisenhunt and husband Billy of Leonard; grandchildren, Diana Wilson, Samuel Whisenhunt, Daniel Citty, Rachel Citty, Steven Clubb, Justin Clubb; great-grandchildren, Rachel Littlefield, MacKenzie Wilson, Blake Wilson, Tucker Wilder, Elizabeth Clubb and Haley Clubb.

Pallbearers were Keith Citty, Billy Whisenhunt, Daniel Citty, Samuel Whisenhunt, Curtis Wilson and Steven Clubb.

Arrangements were entrusted to Bratcher Funeral Home, 401 W. Woodard St., Denison, 75020, (903) 465-2323. Further information is on their website at www.bratcherfuneralhome.com.