

College Campus News: Longino nominated for Raiders Who Rock

Written by Betsy Blevins

Friday, 25 February 2011 12:52 -

Feb. 17, 2011 - Billy Longino was recently notified that he was nominated for Raiders Who Rock, a program that recognizes students at Texas Tech University that display certain values.

The purpose of the Raiders Who Rock program is to honor students, organizations, faculty and staff that exemplify values promoted by The Foundation for a Better Life through their actions and services within the Lubbock and Tech communities. Oftentimes these students are involved in activities within the Lubbock and Tech Communities, and do the work that they do because it is fulfilling to them, not for recognition. This is a joint program between the Texas Tech representatives for the Foundation for a Better Life and the Center for Campus Life.

Those nominating a person to Raiders Who Rock name which of the values, promoted by The Foundation, the nominee exhibits through their activities and services. The nominees then go through a series of interviews and are recognized on the Raiders Who Rock website with their stories. They also get the chance to meet an MTV star.

In addition. to this honor, Longino was also named to the Business school's Dean's List for the fall 2010 semester. He is the son of Bill and Nancy Longino of Celeste and a 2010 graduate of Leonard High School.