Gordon Wright Sells FFA Calf To Evans

Gordon Wright has sold his FFA project, a 572 pound Hereford calf, to Clarence Evans. Gordon bought the calf from A. C. Simmons when he weighed 400 pounds.

During the 120 days Gordon owned the calf he fed 1100 pounds of feed, including three sacks of cotton seed hulls, three sacks of cotton seed meal, three scaks of ground corn and two sacks of FFA mix. These sacks contained 100 lbs each.

Gordon is a freshman student in Leonard High School. He is the son of Mrs. Lois Wright.

W. C. Griffitt is his Agriculture Instructor.

Mr. Evans will have the beef for sale at West Side Grocery and Market this weekend.
