March 3, 2011 - Criminal District Attorney Richard Glaser reports that on Thursday, Feb. 24, the Grand Jury met to consider 38 cases, and all 38 cases were true-billed or indicted. So far in 2011, the Grand Jury has returned 73 true bills of indictment.

It is important to note that an indictment is a formal charge and should not, in itself, be considered an indication of guilt. All persons charged with a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

The following people were indicted for the criminal offense(s) indicated:

Stephanie Ann Acklin, 21, of Leonard - possession of a controlled substance in penalty group 1 weighing less than one gram, a state jail felony.

Kyle Martin, 46, of Leonard - Possession of a controlled substance in penalty group 1 weighing less than one gram in a drug free zone, an unassigned felony carrying a penalty range of 7-20 years in confinement and a fine up to $10,000.
