Jan. 27, 2011 - On Sunday, Jan. 29 from 9 a.m. to noon at the Rhea's Mill Baptist Church in McKinney there will be a Foster/Adopt Expo held for anyone interested in attending.

Foster and Adoption Agencies from North Texas will be available to gather information along with a presentation on what is required to become a foster and adoptive parent. Following this presentation a panel of current foster and adoptive parents will be sharing their experiences as well.

For more information, Contact Bruce Kendrick at bruce@embrace texas.org.

This is a free event for those who wish to attend.
